

Holiday Dates (No League Games)

In the interest of our staff, players, and spectators we will not schedule league games on the following holidays and dates. This is not a comprehensive list and there may be additional holidays not listed here for your individual sport or league.

There are also other important holidays that will not be on this list. Because we cannot observe every holiday, please check the time frame of your desired season and your personal holiday calendar. If you celebrate a holiday that is not listed here, please register for a different sport or season, or inform your team that you won't be attending your game on the specified date.
