2. Each team must be able to provide a written lineup if asked by the Head Umpire or the other team.
3. The "kicking" lineup may not change unless a player is removed from the game.

Regulation Games

1. A regulation game consists of 7 innings, time permitting.
2. In the Last Inning, the team with the lead will always kick last. This means that if the “home” team is losing going into the final inning, they will remain up to bat/kick, starting fresh with 0 outs to begin the Last Inning. In the playoffs, if extra innings are needed, the team that leads off the Last Inning (before extra innings), will continue to lead off the top of subsequent innings.
3. If the game ends in a tie, then the game is a tie. The only exception is when, time permitting, both team captains and the umpire agree to play an additional inning.
4. A game will be considered regulation if it is called off for any reason after 3 completed innings.
5. The team leading after the last full inning will be declared the winner.
6. A game may not last longer than 45 minutes unless both teams, the umpire, and the schedule permit it (i.e. no game following).
7. A game called after 30 minutes of play due to time shall be considered regulation.
8. If a game is “called” before 3 full innings, and the teams have not played at least 30 minutes, every attempt will be made to make up the game.
9. If the game is unable to be made up, it will be considered a tie.
10. Mercy Rule: A team losing by 12 or more runs may opt to end the game.
11. For the purposes of tiebreakers, no team shall win or achieve a differential of more than +10, even if the team won by more than 10 runs.

Forfeits

1. Teams will be given a 5 minute grace period.
2. Teams that fail to abide by their scheduled game time will forfeit their game.
3. A team that uses a player not on their roster will forfeit their game, unless it's a paid sub that registered through the website and checked in with the head umpire.
4. A team that registered as a team that uses a player under 21 will forfeit their game.
5. Any team that forfeits two or more games will be ineligible for the playoffs.

4. There is an 8 run limit per inning except in the last inning where there is no limit.

3. There are no strike outs or walks, but a 3rd foul will result in an out. Kickers can wait for “their” pitch, but the head umpire has authority to tell the kicker they need to kick the next “kickable” pitch or be declared out if the kicker is delaying.

“Bunt” Line

1. The “Bunt” Line is located approximately 20 feet in front of home plate and extends toward the 1st and 3rd base lines. (20ft from the plate on either base line).

10. All ties go to the runner.

 - a. Out of bounds is considered outside the fence, behind the dugout, behind the backstop, or in the street.

The “Ho” Run

1. On a home run kick the kicker may opt to re-run the bases.
 - a. ONLY the kicker may re-run, not players on base when the ball was kicked.
2. If the kicker makes the turn from home towards first base the play immediately becomes a force out at 1st base.
3. If the kicker is out at any point on the 2nd lap, the original run will score but the out will count.
4. The kicker may choose to stop at any base on the re-run and play will proceed as normal.

Playoffs

After 40 minutes of play, each team will start the next inning with a runner on both second and third base. The runners may be of any gender. Please note that if the kicking team chooses to start with a male on 3rd base, a male may still lead off kicking in that inning. If it is tied after this inning, the outcome of the game will be decided by rock, paper, scissors to avoid having games play indefinitely due to ties. If time allows, the championship game will play additional innings before the rock, paper, scissors comes into play.

All other playoff scenarios that occur will be treated on a case-by-case basis by the Sports Director. The Sports Director has the final say on any disputes and will treat each situation in the fairest and most logical way.

Please email Xoso at comeplay@xososports.com if you have any questions about these rules.

These rules may be modified as needed to make the league more fun for everyone.
